2011 - 2012 Academic Year Meal Plan Terms & Conditions

University Meal Plan Policy

All on-campus residents must select from Residence Life meal plans 1 through 5 (Plan 4 is not available to Freshman). Seniors, residents of Disney and Eisenhower kitchen suites, and commuter students are not required to maintain a meal plan; however, they may choose any plan.

Terms and Conditions*

- University meal plans in New York are exempt from sales tax. The following are required to meet exemption criteria:
 - The meal plans and FREDCard are non-transferable and are issued for the SOLE use of the student to whom issued.
 - Food and beverages cannot be purchased for another person's consumption.
 - Points transactions are limited to $35 per day.
 - The quantity of any one item that may be purchased at any one time is limited to four, restrictions may apply.
 - Once a meal plan is used, changes to a lower priced plan or cancellations are not allowed.
 - No refunds can be provided unless a student officially withdraws from SUNY Fredonia.
 - In order to receive a points rollover from the fall semester, you must have an appropriate meal plan for the spring semester. Unspent points may not be used to offset the cost of your spring meal plan. Unspent points at the end of the spring semester cannot be rolled over to the fall semester. No rolled over points will be refunded.
- Meals from plans 1-3 and 5 cannot be accumulated or carried over to the following week. They can be used in a one-week period starting Sunday brunch, ending with Saturday dinner. One meal is payment to enter each time at Marketplace at Erie and Cranston Marche offering all-you-can-eat dining.
- Points make up the declining balance portion of the meal plan. One point is equal to one dollar. Points prices apply for each meal in the dining centers. Retail prices apply in all other food operations. Additional points may be added to your account at any time at the FSA Office in Gregory Hall or online at www.myfredcard.com. A minimum deposit of $15 is required.
- Only Points are accepted at the C-Store and FREDExpress. Both Points and a Meal allowance of $5.75 are accepted at Centre Pointe, Trendz, Starbucks Coffee, Cafes and Concessions.
- 5 Feed-a-friend, complimentary meals are added to meal plans 1 through 5. These meals can be used only in Marketplace at Erie and Cranston Marché during normal business hours. You may use these to feed a friend, relative or guest. You must present your FREDCard to the checker on duty.
- Sick tray cards are provided through your Resident Director.
- FSA is able to meet the requirements for most medically prescribed diets. Students requiring such service should submit a physician's letter with detailed information to the FSA Office in Gregory Hall.
- It is the responsibility of the card holder to report any lost or stolen FREDCard to the FSA Office to prevent others from using your accounts. You may report a FREDCard lost or stolen in any one of the following ways:
 - Online at www.myfredcard.com. Log into "Manage Your Account" and select "Report Lost/Stolen Card". Once you click the "Suspend Card" button, your FREDCard will be instantly disabled.
 - In person at the FSA Office located on the first floor of Gregory Hall during normal business hours which are: Monday-Friday, 8:30a.m. to 5:00p.m. After normal business hours and on weekends, lost cards may be reported at the Convenience Store located on the first floor of University Commons.
 - The first lost card will be replaced at no charge. All subsequent lost cards have a replacement fee of $20. This fee can be paid with the Debit Account. Replacement cards are available at the FSA Office & Convenience store.
- Students may receive information concerning meal plans by contacting the FSA Office during regular business hours. According to FERPA law, with written permission from the student, detailed plan information may also be released to parents or legal guardians.
- A meal plan contract is for the academic year. Any additions, changes or cancellations MUST be made by completing a new enrollment form and returning it to the FSA Office in Gregory Hall. Contact the FSA Office at the number listed above with questions. Any changes, additions or cancellations must comply with University Policy.
- In case of a refund, FSA will prorate meal plan usage and determine the remaining balance less a $10 service charge.
- Meal Plans may be suspended based on notification to FSA from the SUNY Fredonia Student Accounts Office. Students must contact the Student Accounts Office in regard to suspended Meal Plans.
- China, glasses, trays, silverware or other dining service property must remain in food service facilities.

FSA reserves the right to alter these terms and conditions, as it deems appropriate.
